

Tim Cotten serves as Minister of Worship & Music.

Tim came to Beech Haven in September, 2014, after serving several churches in South Carolina and Georgia. A second-generation music minister, he spent most of his childhood in Alpharetta, GA, before going to Truett McConnell College to study music (trombone and voice). After graduating from Truett, Tim went on to complete a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education (trombone) from the University of Georgia. He then on to New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary where he earned a Master of Divinity degree in Worship Leadership.

Tim is married to his college sweetheart, Amy, who studied voice at both Truett McConnell and Shorter College. They have two daughters: Micah and Rinnah.

Aside from spending time with his family, Tim's favorite pastime is playing whatever instrument is within reach.

Contact Tim: tim@beechhaven.net